Description :

PDF-0d930 | The surname, Howell, is a patronymic, with at least five Howell families existing in America. All are said to be descended from, or otherwise related to, King Hywel the Good, the most famous of the early (tenth century) Welsh kings, but are not known to be inter-related. A John Howell, born c.1600, is said to have come to Connecticut about 1640, and to have been the father of Richard Howell.
