Description :

PDF-b37d9 | GENERATIONS starts with the author's overview of Polish/Jewish interactions over a thousand years from the times of Ibrahim ibn Yakub, a Jewish traveler-merchant-diplomat from Arab Spain, who in 965 A.D. was the first to mention a town called Kracko and continuing all the way to the Holocaust. It then proceeds from pre-historic legends to historic details about Krakovian Jewish courtiers serving t... Generations: A millenium of Jewish history in Poland from the earliest times to the Holocaust told by a survivor from an old Krakow family
