Description :

PDF-bfd0b | Face-to-face conversation between two or more people is a universal form, and perhaps the basic form, of social interaction. It is the primary site of social interaction in all cultures and the place where social and cultural meaning takes shape. Face-to-face conversation between children and parents can also be an important context for social and cognitive development. Given the universality, fre... Language in Action: Psychological Models of Conversation (International Series in Social Psychology)
