Description :

PDF-897c7 | This work describes the Verein colonization in Texas, a movement that brought thousands of German immigrants into Texas from 1844 to 1847. The goal of the Verein movement was to create a settlement of German immigrants on the 3,800,000-acre Fisher-Miller grant and in a number of other places in Texas. Of special interest to the descendants of these early Texas settlers is a list of over 4,000 immigr... A New Land Beckoned: German Immigration to Texas, 1844-1847
