Description :

PDF-de870 | Roscommon is one of Ireland's smallest counties by population, and its name derives from the Irish - Ros Comain, meaning St. Coman's Wood. Its social history is mainly based around agriculture and it was badly affected by the Great Famine of 1845-47, which resulted in the death and emigration of a huge portion of the population. Its people were active in the Rebellion of 1798 and it was also the b... A Guide to Tracing Your Roscommon Ancestors (Family History Guide)
