Description :

PDF-65852 | Nicholas Prince was a Revolutionary War artilleryman. There was little remarkable about him, except that his experiences mirrored those of the vast majority of Patriots—young, illiterate, passionate, poor—who lived and fought during a seminal time in American history. He traveled nearly 1,500 miles on foot or on horseback from the wilds of South Carolina to Georgia and back to his home in Horr... Tracking a South Carolina Patriot: Nicholas Prince and the Revolutionary War
