Description :

PDF-75f7e | Less than two centuries ago finance - today viewed as the center of economic necessity and epitome of scientific respectability - stood condemned as disreputable fraud. How this change in status came about, and what it reveals about the nature of finance, is the story told in Virtue, Fortune, and Faith. A unique cultural history of modern financial markets from the early eighteenth century to the ... Virtue, Fortune, and Faith: A Genealogy of Finance (Barrows Lectures)
